COMPETENCIES

Helpfulness – Individuals who exhibit this competency are able to convey a helpful demeanor to customers in all circumstances. They follow through with customers to ensure requests are fulfilled and complaints are addressed in a timely manner.

Compliance – Service Associates work to ensure that they, team members, other employees, contractors, strategic partners, and other relevant stakeholders act in accordance with all pertinent rules, regulations, policies, and best practices, and that behavior in the organization meets the company's standards of conduct.

Accountability – They take responsibility for their own performance and accept full ownership of issues, problems, and opportunities regardless of the source. They work in a careful and organized manner, pay attention to all pertinent details, follow through on commitments and promises, and build trust through reliability.

Quality focus – They are able to manage the efficiency, accuracy, completeness, and integrity of the work that they produce. They also recommend improvements in procedures to continually improve the quality of work produced.

Organizational citizenship – Individuals who exhibit this competency focus efforts toward the common good; place the organization's goals before individual, functional, or business unit goals; and demonstrate the desire to be a part of something that extends beyond their own self-interest.

Initiating action – Individuals who exhibit this competency will tend to be self-starters and will take a lead role in improving or enhancing a product or service, avoiding problems, or developing entrepreneurial opportunities. They will often demonstrate a sincere positive attitude toward getting things done and will seek out additional responsibilities that may go beyond the scope of their formal job description.
